ORDER

FILED: 26FEB20PM2:49
COC JAY GRESHAM GUL SC

Pursuant to my authority as Chief Administrative Judge in the Thirteenth Circuit, and in order to facilitate the efficient and orderly operation of Initial Appearances, the Clerk of Court shall accept Attorney Orders bearing the names of multiple Defendants who appear. The Clerk of Court may preserve the Original and place copies of each Order in the files respective to each individual defendant and filed respectively. In this instance alone, the copied Attorney Orders will serve as the Original for each named Defendant. This Order does not apply to any Attorney Orders other than those signed at Initial Appearance nor affect the filing requirements of any other Order in any General Sessions matter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

R. Lawton McIntosh
